ENCOURAGEMENT OF ROWDYISM .- The returns made to the Chief of Police show the following shameful exhibition of Aldermanic interference with justice, during the first four months of the year. What wonder that Rowdylam flourishes and rides rough-shod over law and order, when the sworn guardians of morality and peace rush to the station-houses to discharge whoever of their friends may have been arrested. The term "disorderly conduct" was invented expressly to cover, as delicately as possible, the real eutrages of slung shot and club ruffiaus. Aldermen Barr, of the Sixth, and Bard, of the Fourteenth, (both Intensely Loco-Foco Wards,) seems to have had the greatest number of clients. [We do not mean to say that there are not some honest persons arrested and thus discharged, but they are not by any means in the · majority.]

SERIOUS DISTURBANCE ON STATES Island .- One Man Killed and Several Badly Injured .-A disturbance of a serious nature occurred on Monday afternoon, between the hours of four and five o'clock, at Quarantine Hill, on Staten Island, between six citizens of that place and a party of about a dozen French men and women, who were there on a pic-nic excursion.— The French party, it appears, were amusing themselves spon the Hill, when a man, named Elias Butler, who for many years has been connected as a boatman with the U.S. barge office, at Staten Island, accompanied by two others, made their appearance among them, and the party deeming themselves intruded upon, requested to be left alone; a quarrel then ensued, and a general fight was the result; stones, clubs and other missiles were freely used, and both sides suffered severely; three other individuals joined the Staten Islanders, and when the fight was over, it was ascertained that Butler was fatally injured. He was immediately taken to his residence, where he died yesterday afternoon, from the effects of his injuries. An inquest was held upon the body by Coroner Randolph, and a verdict was rendered by the Jury of death from wounds inflicted upon the head by stones or sticks, in the hands of persons to the Jury unknown. It appeared in evidence that the decessed and his friends were the only parties who were to blame, and the latter admitted that it was chiefly their fault. Two of the Frenchmen were arrested and com mitted to Richmond jall; they will, however, probably be discharged. Both of these men were very badly, and it is feared fatally injured. A man, named Francis Berrick, residing at No. 87 Lewis st, was also very hadly beaten by the French party, and he was brought to this City, and conveyed to his place of residence.

On last Monday, several fights occurred at the Quarantine Landing, between Germans and runners, but we could hear of no person being seriously injured.

MORE RUFFIANISM. - Henry Smith, "the Razor Strop Man," states that while in a stage yesterday he was violently assaulted and beaten by man who appeared to be intoxicated. Mr. S. had the man taken before a Magistrate, where matters were fixed, and the complainant (Smith) told that he must appear this morning at 6 o'clock. Why such an early hour was named, no one knows, but it will not prevent complaint, at any rate.

EXAMINATION OF WARD SCHOOL No. 20.-The examination of the Male Department of Mr. Done's School came off on Monday, under the direction of Joseph McKeen, I.L.D., County Superintendent. We have spoken of this School in a former item, and need only say of it now that the examination on Monday fully justified the high standard upon which we had placed it. Mr. McKeen stated on this eccasion that it was the best examination that had ever passed under his notice. The classes under the charge of Messre, Smith, Hun ter and Storrs were thoroughly tested. In consequence of want of time, Mr. Perry's and Misses Croweli's and Hall's classes were passed over. The drawing exhibited was very fine. The declamation of the boys was much better than usual, and elicited high praise. All present expressed themselves highly gratified at the extraordinary preficiency manifested in every department of the School. We shall hear more of No. 20, when the schools send up their lists to the Free Academy.

ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE .- A man. James Gibbons, on Monday evening, while in a deranged state of mind, jumped into the dock at the foot of James-et., East River, with the intent to destroy himself. He was, however, rescued but soon afterward made Iwomore attempts to throw himself into the water. He was, however, prevented by officer Holden, of the Fourth Ward, who took him to the Station house, when he told Captain Ditchett that his money and friends Were all gone, and he thought it was time for him to SINGULAR THEFT .- The lead box which was inserted in the corner-stone of the Bible House, now in process of erection in Astor-place, was taken out on Sunday night by some thieves, who fled upon the approach of the police. MEETING OF THE NEW-YORK STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.-A semi-annual meeting of this Soclety convened yesterday at 11 o'clock A.M., at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Crosby-st. A large number of delegates and physicians of the city were present, among whom we noticed Dr. Snow of the Senate, Dr. Cash of Orange Co., Dr. Van Baren of Albany, Spencer of Syracuse, Weish of Salisbury, Conn., Good rich of Brooklyn, and Drs. Lee, Wood, Cheeseman Gilman, Griscom, Holton, Gardner, Watte, J. M. Smith, Bliss, Parker, Post, Van B res. Tottle, and a score or did not know.

The President, Prof. A. Clark, presided, and Dr. Cock was chosen Secretary.

also the Alms House and the various charitable invitorious of the City, all of which were accepted with the thanks of the Society.

The Committee on business reported several scientific papers to be read, and the order of reading, &c.

The first was a very able and elaborate paper by Dr. Tuttle on the value and importance of vital statistics, as connected with Life Insurance, sanatory regulations, annutities, titles to property, &c. &c. which was directed to be published in pamphlet form for general distribution, previous to the next meeting of the Legislature. It is but an act of justice to Dr. Tuttle to say that his essay was one of the ablest papers on this subject we have ever read, and, if published, is calculated to do much good.

The second paper read by Prof. Charles A. Lee wa "On the Causes of the Circulation of Fluids in Vegetables on the cause of the creatain of those and Animals. This was a long and elaborate paper, closing with some remarks on Mrs. Williard's theory of the motive powers of the circulation, and was listened to with marked attention, and referred to the Committee of Publication. The Society adjourned at 2 P.M., to meet at 4½ P.M.

at 4½ P.M.
On assembling at 4½ P.M., Dr. Lee concluded the reading of his paper. Dr. J.A. Prof. Clark followed, by a few remarks on the nature of the disease, and a short recess was taken for pital. Prof. Clark followed, by a lew remarks on the nature of the disease, and a short recess was taken for the members to exercise microscopic filustrations of Dr. Swett's paper, some very large microscopes of Prof. Clark being employed for that purpose. Two of these instruments, it was stated, were made in Brooklyn, and were pronounced superly to any of foreign make.

Dr. Cash, of Orange County, then offered a resolution, which he supported by some interesting remarks, on the duties of the members of the State Medical Sciety to device some effectual means to enlighten the public with regard to the evils, the dangers and enormities of quackery, inclusing Homeopathy, Trideopathy, Mesmerism. &c. & 1. The resolution was debated by the mover, Drs. Goodrich, Snow, Lee, Rockwell, Spencer, Gilman and the President, and was finnally laid on the table till today, when it will come up for discussion.

The first paper announced for this morning, at 9 A. M. is one by Dr. Thomas Spencer, of Syracuse, on "The Atomic Theory of Veget Animal Heat and Life," which it is believed will excite considerable discussion. The well-known ability of Prof. Spencer leads us to expect an interesting essay. Various other papers are to be read, and subjects of scientific interest discussed, which will occupy probably the remainder of the week.

which will occupy probably the remainder of the week.

BIGAMY AND INCEST .- On Saturday morning, at Albany, a very respectable female from New-York appeared before the Chief of Police, and made a statement, of which the following is the substance:

About eleven years since she was married to Mr. William Darling, by whom she has one child, an interest-ing and intelligent boy. After having lived together some time, she ascertained that Darling was already married, and by his first wife had a daughter, then be tween seven and eight years of age. After the knowledge of this fact came to Mrs. D. she was abandoned by him, and since then he has avoided her, and entirely failed to make provision for her support and snainten-

The parties will be held until a requisition is received from New-York, where the prisoners will be sent for trial. Darling is about 41 years of age, and his daughter about 19. His second wife, the complainant, is a very respectable womar, and although deeply sensible of the deprayity of her busband, and the disgrace which his depractly of her business, and the desgrace which has conduct has brought upon his family, is also sensible of the demands of the outraged laws, and will appear against him when the hour of trial arrives.

It appears, from the addavit of Mr. Gray, that on Wednesday last he went to the store of Waters and bought a loaf of bread, for which he offered in payment a $5 bill, and received in change a $3 bill, one for $1, and the balance in silver. The $3 bill, which was a kind of draft on E. W. Clark, Brothers & Co., of Burlington, Iowa, Mr. Gray, on the following Friday having occasion to make another purchase, presented to the defenant, in payment and received in change, the $2 bill on the Farmers' Bank, which bill, on being offered in payment for a purchase made at a butcher's shop, was pronounced a forgery. Vandberbit was in fault in three particulars—ist, in not slowing in proper time: 2d, in not having a proper look-out on the forward deck: 3d, in ot changing her course the wrong way. Her wheel just at the critical point of collision was put hard-a-tarboard, throwing her across the bows of the Thames. Tols third fault caused the collision, and the decree must be for the libeliants, with an order of reference to the Commissioner to accertain and report the amount of damage. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-Before Judge COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Before Judge Woodruff.—R. and J. McCollem agt. Edward For—Action in the nature of trespass, to recover damages for illegal taking of a machine used by bakers for the purpose of cutting out dough. Plaintiffs allege that they are partners in business as machinists in this City—that the machine in question was purchased by them of Mr. Stewart, to whom it was sent by Mr. John Martin for the purpose of having it altered and repaired, and subsequently, as Mr. S. had formerly done work for Mr. M., it is alleged the latter authorized Mr. S. to sell the machine to pay for the former work, and Mr. S. sell the machine to pay for the former work, and Mr. S. accordingly sold the machine to plaintiff for $200, $120, of which they paid, and the machine was delivered to them—that Mr. F., with others, came to the store, and forcibly took the machine off, and has retained it. The damages are placed at $500.

In defence, it is denied that plaintiffs owned the machine: on the contrary, he says it was owned by Mr. Martin, against whom defendant recovered a judg ment of $589, on which execution was issued and leviet on the machine in question, which was sold by the Sacriif, and that defendant bought it at the Sheriif's sale. It is denied that Mr. M. owned it. Scaled verdict.

FEARFUL RIOT-EXCITEMENT-SPE-

CIAL MEETING OF THE ALDERMEN.—At near midulght,

after the fire on Monday night, a terrible riot took place among the firemen, near the corner of Grand and Ewen. sts. No. Seven's Company had been stationed during the fire at a cistery, and while washing their hose after the fire, Nos. Two, Three, Four, Five and Six passed her on their way to their houses, giving her Company the usual salute. No. Seven's Company baving finished washing their hose proceeded up Grand-st, toward their Engine-House, Soon after No. One Engine, and No. One Hook and Ladder Companies, came into Grand-st. at full speed, and turned up in pursuit of No. Seven Coming alongside, when near Ewen st., the word was given in No. One's Company, "Go in, reosters, go in!" at which an encounter with fists commenced. Stones and clubs were, however, soon in use, and a terrible conflict ensued. It is stated that No. Seven's Company repulsed their assailants, who, afterward, reinforced by persons said to belong to No. Forcy-four of New York and a number of Williamsburgh firemen, returned and renewed the conflict, which continued for near an hour longer. Aldermen and policemen were of no account in endeavoring to quell the dis-turbance. The lohabitants in the vicinity were in consternation, and barricaded their doors and windows. Several persons engaged in the melce, and one or two who were not, were severely injured, and many others slightly. A party afterward attacked Engine House No. 4, whose men had aided No. 1, broke open the doors, demolished the windows and pelted the me chine with all kinds of missiles. No. I's engine was somewhat injured. The total injuries to engines is about $1,000. Some of the windows in the Gothic Church and in houses in the vicinity were broken.

Owing to the excitement in the city, Mayor Berry called the Board of Aldermen together at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and laid the matter before them. Members of the Board described scenes of the affray It was mentioned that the Company of New York came over 200 strong. The opinion is prevalent that it was an incendiary fire to give an opportunity for this affray. The same is the opinion of the fire at Williams's lumber yard on Sunday. The Board passed resolutions condecaring in strong terms this fire-rioting; authorizing an investigation of the affair by a committee, consisting of Aldermen Hobley, White, Barker, Thayer, Johnson and Ralphs : and directing the Clerk to send copies of the resolutions to the New-York Board of Aldermenthat New York Fire Companies might be prevented from crossing the ferries, except by order of their Chief

The Committee on the investigation met at the City Hall last evening, and proceeded to take evidence by a private examination of witnesses and participants in the row, with the desire to promptly punish the aggressors in this instance, and to take necessary steps to prevent a repetition, if possible, of the scenes of that occasion. The investigation was in progress when our reporter

ENGINE COMPANY No. 1 .- This company held a meeting at their house last evening, in re to the riot on Monday night.

The Water Project.—The existing project of supplying the City of Williamsburgh with pure and wholesome water, if successful, will do much for the increase, comfort and health of its population, and for the advance of the value of rest estate. It is, therefore, worthy of countennee until it can be fully and fairly tested. A Company, consisting of seven gentlemen, was incorporated by the State Legislature, at its last essaion, under the title of the "Williamsburgh Walest expension." tiemen, was he or porated by the State Legislatore, at its last session, under the title of the "Williamsburgh Water Company," with a charter that requires that the Company be oresulted within two years from the date of its charter. Their charter also gives the Company power to organize and carry out their full purposes of supplying water; and, in doing so, allows them to lay their pipes in the streets, without reference to the city authorities. The Company Incorporated consists of authorities. The Company Incorporated consists of Messrs Nosh Waterbury, Andrew B Hodges, Minor Ketth, A. Thomas S nith, Thomas Greene, John F. Greene, and Isaiah Nichols. The wells from which the Company intend to derive their supply of water will be upon the block bounded by Ninth, South Second, Tenth and Ainsile sta. The reby Ninth, Sould Second, Tenth and Absilests. The re-result of the property has been obtained, and the Com-pany designs to clear off all the buildings, grade it, and convert it into a Park. At each corner of the Park iron towers will be constructed, 110 feet in hight, on the top of which will be large water tanks capable of hidding of which will be large water tanks capable of holding $10,000 gallons each, into which the water will be forced from the wells by the power of steam engines. The ground where those wells are situated, it is stated by a civil engineer, is ten feet above high tide water, and by these elevated tanks a sufficient altituce is attained to convey the water into the fourth stories of the dwellings on the highest ground in the city.

The Mossrs, Greene, of the above Company, have constructed two wells in that ground, by way of an experiment. One of them is twenty-six lest in diameter, by twenty-one in depth, is walled up with brick and cement, and contains fifteen test in depth of water. The other is thirteen feet in depth of water. Two steam pumps were kept at work upon each of these wells while pumps were kept at work upon each of these wells while the digging was going on; but the excavations could not be carried deept, because of the abundance of water rushing in at the bottom, which the pumps, e two steam engines could not worked by the two steam engines could not exhaust. Itseling an estimate upon the quantity of water thrown off, it is said that these two wells will give a supply of 100 gallous per minute, of pure soft water for nouse-hold purposes, drieding, &c. That supply will amount to over one milion of gallous for every twenty-four hours, which would be an average of twenty-eight gallous per day each for the present estimated population of 35,000. For a population of 100,000, it would, ion of 55,000. For a population of 100 000, it would, on an average, allow ten gallons daily for each person it is believed that these springs were the sources of Those who oppose, or in other words doubt the success of this project, express the opinion that it does not yield the amount of water estimated; that the fountains will tail, or that ultimately these aprings will give sait water instead of fresh. The opinion is also expressed in this instead of fresh. instead of fresh. The opinion is also expressed in this quarter that the water may become tainted, from sinks, cess pools, &c., especially if the Company should evantually sell building lots on the block in which the supply-wells are situated.

Considerable interest was mark fested in the different Wards, but the greatest effort was in the First. There was considerable fonce literature, consisting of appeals—to Whigs, Democrats, tem-persince folks, firemen and Irishmen—in flaming capi-tals, well seasoned with interrogations and exclamations. First Word.—James Narine, regular Whig, was elected to fill his own vacancy, by a majority of 8 votes over Peter D. Vroom, Democrat, supported by Democrats, Independent Whigs and Temperance mea. William Chilver, (in place of Frederick B Betts.) Walter Rutherford, (in place of Geo. S. Gardner,) and Issae Vanderbeck, (in place of Alex. H. Wallie,) were elected. In the evening, when the result was known, eight guns were fired for Mr. Narine's majority; rockets were let off and bonfires were kindled.

Fourth Ward .- Henry Burrow, Richard R. Ruppleyes, Jonathan D. Miller, and Cornelius V. Traphagen, w elected to fill their own vacancies.

It is claimed that the election of Mr. Low, of the Third Ward, will throw Mr. Brokaw and his friends into a minority on the issues which have prevented the organization of the Board-giving the other party nine votes, which is a quorum and a majority of the sixteen members. Should the newly-elected members succeed in the centrated seats, their power will stand 13 to 3. Our report to-morrow will give further particulars.

This evening one hundred guns will be fired, celebra ting this as a Whig victory.
